Subject: Phone Call Time Extension Request - Levin Stone #1 (S/027/086)

On February 16, 2001, I received a voicemail message from Mr. Phil Levin of Levin Stone Company requesting additional time to complete the required reclamation of excess disturbance at his small mine project area. February 16, was the 2nd deadline that had been established date to complete this work (the 1st deadline being January 10th). I returned his call to discuss this matter further.

Mr. Levin explained that he had run into a number of difficulties getting the proper reclamation equipment lined up and a contractor scheduled to complete the work. I explained that it was becoming difficult for me to consider granting another time extension given his failure to perform to date, or even contact us before the actual deadlines transpired. I asked Mr. Levin what assurance he could give me to make me believe that the work would be performed within the requested two week time frame extension.

Mr. Levin stated he had a contractor, Dee Ferguson, out of Baker, Nevada lined up to perform the work and would have him contact our office and the local BLM office ASAP with a schedule to perform the reclamation. He also stated that if necessary he would fly up from Arizona to see that things get taken care of himself. He stated that he has had his surety company working with the BLM also and that we should be expecting a call from the bonding company too. He also stated he had recently sent a check to the BLM to resolve their concerns over a lack of appropriate payment for quarried building stone material.

I told him that we would grant a two week extension to complete the reclamation work. I also stated we would want someone from our office and/or the BLM onsite to oversee the reclamation work to make sure it met with our expectations and regulatory requirements. I asked him to give us a few days advance notice of when the contractor would be onsite. He agreed to do so. I told him that if the work was not performed within the next two weeks (without just cause), we would have little choice but to initiate formal enforcement actions.

Mr. Levin apologized and thanked me for giving them another chance. He assured me he would do his very best to comply with our requirements in a timely manner.
